

Encounters at Moggerhanger

I've had so many testimonies from people who were able to make our conference with Kathie Walters. People saying that they felt they experienced freedom in certain areas of their lives and some that they were profoundly touched by God.

One of the most powerful encounters I had, along with some others, was an angel at the end of the Friday night session. We just got stuck in the glory which surrounded it and there was such joy. One of our beautiful sisters Carole was shown exactly what that was all about and I have copied her testimony below...it's amazing. Carole is a Pastor in Idaho and has just opened a Healing Room there! So I pray she has taken the anointing with her to see people set free!!

The previous weekend I was in Wales with Kathie and she saw a ladder at Moggerhanger, with many angels going up and down – one angel was holding a polishing cloth, one had a map of England, one had a packet of digestive biscuits, one an oil can and one was holding the ladder steady.

Kathie is doing an article for the Elijah List as we speak! God moved amongst us in such power!

An audio of the Friday night session and videos of the Saturday sessions will be available on our website soon!

I pray you are so very blessed by Carole's account.

With love in Jesus – our ALL IN ALL!

Encounter at Moggerhanger

Other than Jesus and Elijah I have not been drawn to biblical characters as my heroes. Actually I have few people that have influenced my life. Joan of Arc, William Wallace, Evan Roberts, William Wilberforce, Martin Luther and Abraham Lincoln stand among the first two mentioned. I have always been drawn to those who were willing to both live and die for the cause of freedom both natural and spiritual. The itinerary of this trip Kathie was leading really appealed to me.

The trip was full of encounters with a deep sense of destiny for me. Moriah Chapel where the Welsh revival broke forth was permeated with the impetus to push through and lay hold of what those who had gone before us have laid up for us to walk in. It is there to be distributed to whoever will receive and walk in it. The place is surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses who are cheering us on.

I could go on about each place and what it meant but I will try to stay focused on Moggerhanger on Friday, October 11 we had a conference in Bedford with His Fragrance Ministry. I had no idea what I was going to experience. It was very dark when we got there so I couldn't see anything about where we were. We greeted our hosts and I mentioned that I sensed the premises had a strong spiritual significance. I was then told that Wilberforce visited there frequently as the estate belonged to his cousin. Talk about shock and awe! I was standing on the ground that one of my favorite historical mentors had done. When the meeting ended I started to head for the door and one of the ladies from our group pulled me aside and told me to stand on a certain spot. She kept saying "just receive" over and over. I thought I must need to do something to show I was receiving but all of a sudden I sensed that I could no longer feel my feet and didn't know if I had gone somewhere in the spirit or not. Then I was aware of an angel. I couldn't see him and did not hear audible words. I knew he was one of the angels that had been assigned to William Wilberforce. I saw a vision of the kind of shackles that were used on the slaves with keys laying beside them. I could hear people trying to get me to walk towards the bus but I wanted to stay with the angel. My feet were stuck to the ground and I literally could not move. Somehow I ended up back on the bus with the efforts of my fellow traveling companions.

I am not sure what the total significance of that encounter is but I know it was monumental. Keys are being given to those who have been crying out to see the religious slavery broken off of God's children. Keys to set the captives free both saved and unsaved. The new Abolitionists are arising who will sacrifice whatever is necessary to loose the bound and oppressed. As for Moggerhanger I believe it will become a place where freedom will be ministered at every level and to every level of society. People will come to breathe in the atmosphere and receive a key to influence the lives of those in their own nations. It will be known as "The Freedom Center". Cast off the shackles that keep you bound to anything but Christ. Freely you have received now freely give.
